Commission on Colleges and Universities
http://www.commissioncu.org
Disclosure Statement Regarding
St. Petersburg College
St. Petersburg, Florida
Issued October 29, 2026, by The Commission

St. Petersburg College voluntarily withdrew its membership from the Commission on Colleges and Universities (The Commission), effective October 28, 2026.

The institution's status as an accredited institution with The Commission expires on the effective date above. Prior to the withdrawal of membership, the institution's accreditation status was in good standing, having been reaffirmed in June 2018.

Information regarding the institution's accreditation following its withdrawal of membership from SACSCOC is available via the U.S. Department of Education's Database of Accredited Postsecondary Institutions and Programs (DAPIP) at https://ope.ed.gov/dapip/#/home.

The Commission on Colleges and Universities is the entity responsible for accrediting degree-granting institutions in the United States and international sites approved by The Commission Board of Trustees that award associate, baccalaureate, master's, or doctoral degrees. The Commission Board of Trustees is the representative body of the College Delegate Assembly and is charged with conducting the accreditation process. To gain or maintain accreditation, an institution must comply with The Commission policies and with all standards contained in the Principles.of.Accreditation.